techniques	1.1. Domain analysis
	1.2. Content analysis
	1.3. Comparison technique

Critical Aspects of Competency	Assessment requires evidence that the candidate: 1.1 Determine data / information 1.2 Studied and applied gathered data/information 1.3 Recorded and studied data/information These aspects may be best assessed using a range of scenarios what ifs as a stimulus with a walk through forming part of the response. These assessment activities should include a range of problems, including new, unusual and improbable situations that may have happened.
Resource Implications	Specific resources for assessment  2.1 Evidence of competent performance should be obtained by observing an individual in an information management role within the workplace or operational or simulated environment.
3. Methods of Assessment	Competency in this unit may be assessed through: 3.1 Written Test 3.2 Interview 3.3 Portfolio The unit will be assessed in a holistic manner as is practical and may be integrated with the assessment of other relevant units of competency. Assessment will occur over a range of situations, which will include disruptions to normal, smooth operation. Simulation may be required to allow for timely assessment of parts of this unit of competency. Simulation should be based on the actual workplace and will include walk through of the relevant competency components.
4. Context for Assessment	4.1 In all workplace, it may be appropriate to assess this unit concurrently with relevant teamwork or operation units.

	with established principles of infectious diseases transmission
	- Population and individual-based services provided in accordance to primary health care standards 1.2 Strengthened infection control measures in different settings
	- Infection control measures is coordinated with local health office in accordance with established infection prevention and control protocols
	- Implementation of infection control measures across different settings is initiated in accordance with established infection prevention and control protocols
	- Supportive management for infectious diseases is properly coordinated and communicated in accordance with established referral pathway
	- Accomplishments are reported to local health office in accordance with established procedures 1.3 Applied the latest guidelines on reintegration of patients with infectious diseases <ul> <li>Policies and guidelines on reintegration of patients</li> </ul> with infectious diseases are communicated in accordance with established procedures <ul> <li>Feedback from clients is gathered in accordance with</li> </ul> established procedures
	- Patients data is reported to concerned local health offices or personnel in accordance with established procedures
2. Resource Implications	The following resources should be provided:
	2.1 Tools, Materials and Equipment appropriate for the unit of competency 2.2 Workplace environment appropriate for the unit of competency
3.Methods of	Competency in this unit must be assessed through:
Assessment	3.1 Interview
	3.2 Demonstration with Questioning
	3.3 Written Examination
4. Context of	4.1 Competency may be assessed in the actual workplace or Assessment	at the designated TESDA Accredited Assessment Center.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

- 1. Epidemiological
- : Relating to the branch of medicine which deals with the incidence, distribution, and control of diseases.
- 2. Immunization
- : Is the process wherein a person is made immune or resistant to an infectious disease, typically by the administration of a vaccine.
- 3. Infection Control
- Is the discipline concerned with preventing healthcareassociated infections: a practical rather than academic subdiscipline of epidemiology. It is an essential part of the infrastructure of health care. Infection control and hospital epidemiology are akin to public health practice, practiced within the confines of a particular health-care delivery system rather than directed at society as a whole. Infection addresses factors related to the of infections within the healthcare setting, whether among patients, from patients to staff, from staff to patients, or among staff. This includes preventive measures such as hand washing. cleaning, disinfecting, sterilizing, and vaccinating. Other aspects include surveillance. monitoring, and investigating and managing suspected outbreaks of infection within a healthcare setting.
- 4. Infection Control Measures
- : Is a practical, evidence-based approach which prevents patients and health workers from being harmed by avoidable infection and as a result of antimicrobial resistance.
- 5. Infectious Disease :
  - Infectious diseases are diseases caused by living organisms like viruses and bacteria. Described as contagious, they can be passed from person to person through body secretions, insects or other means. Examples are SARS, influenza, the common cold, tuberculosis (TB), Hepatitis A and B. Infectious diseases are disorders caused by organisms such as bacteria, viruses, fungi or parasites. Many organisms live in and on our bodies. They're normally harmless or even helpful. But under certain conditions, some organisms may cause disease.
- 6. Infectious Disease : Management
- Essentially consists in identifying the microbial cause(s) of an infection, initiating if necessary antimicrobial therapy against microbes, and controlling host reactions to infection.
- 7. Infectious Disease : Pathogens
- Are organisms that can cause disease. The different types of pathogens and the severity of the diseases that they cause are very diverse. It is also defined as a microorganism that causes, or can cause, disease. We have defined a pathogen as a microbe that can cause damage in a host.

8. Infectious Disease : Transmission

Is the passing of a pathogen causing communicable disease from an infected host individual or group to a particular individual or group, regardless of whether the other individual was previously infected. [1] The term strictly refers to the transmission of microorganisms directly from one individual to another by one or more of the following means: It could be airborne, droplet, direct/indirect physical contact, fecal-oral.

9. Preventive Measures

: Measures or steps taken for prevention of disease as opposed to disease treatment. Preventive care strategies are typically described as taking place at the primary, secondary, and tertiary prevention levels.

10. Reintegrate

: To integrate again into an entity; restore to unity.

11. Supportive Management

: Treatment given to prevent, control, or relieve complications and side effects and to improve the patient's comfort and quality of life.

12. Vaccination

: Is the administration of a vaccine to help the immune system develop protection from a disease. Vaccines contain a microorganism or virus in a weakened, live or killed state, or proteins or toxins from the organism.
